

Freckles the Bunny Series Book # 1 Order Form

Vickianne Caswell, award winning author visited your child today for a story reading of "Book # 1: Freckles is Scared of School" at their school. Your child was not only able to listen to the story, but also got to meet Freckles, the real bunny of the stories.

The series is aimed for children about to enter pre-kindergarten to grades 2, though some older children love the stories as well. The books contain some fun facts on the animals and the stories, where ideas for the story came from, a moral and funny parts that will make you and your child laugh. All of the main characters are based on the author's real pets with the same unique personalities. You will even find some family and recurring characters that were real as well!

Meet Freckles, the lesson learner of the stories. Boots the kitten, he can't stop grooming his paws. Dreamy the chick, she loves to nap. Tiger the puppy, thinks he's a cat. Norma the fawn, she is shy and can move fast. Stew, she is introduced in book two and is kind and gentle. Lastly, there is Donut the duckling, he loves to do everything in a circle.

In the first book in the series, the children are introduced to Freckles, a little bunny who is used to being at home with her mom and she likes it very much. Falls comes along and Freckles finds out that her world is about to change and she doesn't like it. She cries, thumps her feet and has bad dreams. Freckles meets new friends at school and realizes that it was not as scary as she thought it was and doesn't want to leave. Children seem to be able to relate to Freckles and the book is recommended more for children entering school but is also an introduction to the characters.

Vickianne's goal when she wrote these stories was to help children understand some of what they are going through in life and to realize that they are not alone. She hopes that you and your child will love Freckles as much as she did.
